

Table of Contents
BENZIE COUNTY
OPEN SPACE & NATURAL RESOURCES PROTECTION PLAN

	Page
Chapter 1 Benzie County Open Space and Natural Resources	1
What Kind of Land to Protect and Why	3
Importance of Nature	3
Viewsheds and Scenic Corridors	5
Wildlife Habitat and Travel Corridors	6
Sensitive Environments	7
Natural Features.....	9
Threatened Species Communities	10
Recreation Corridors	11
Important Cultural/Historic Structures and Places.....	13
The Role of Public Land	13
Coordination with State and Federal Officials	15
Coordination with Local Land Conservancies and Conservation Organizations	15
Citizens and Visitors Believe North Woods Character is Important.....	16
Existing Land Ownership Pattern.....	24
 Chapter 2 What Lands to Protect and Why	 32
Purpose	32
Economic Benefit of Preserving Community Character	33
Protection Approaches	35
General Principles for Preservation of Open Space and Natural Resources	35
Available Open Space and Natural Resource Protection Tools.....	37
Commercial Forest Act	37
Conservation Easement	37
Conservation Subdivision	37
Design Guidelines	38
Fee Simple Purchase by Conservancy or Public Agency	38
Infill Purchase or Trade by State or Federal Government	38
PA 116. Farmland and Open Space Development Agreements	38
PDR (Purchase of Development Rights).....	38
Sand Dune Zoning	38
Scenic Easement	39
Shoreline Zoning	39
TDR (Transfer of development Rights)	39
Wetland Zoning	39
Zoning for Exclusive Use	39
Zoning for Low Intensity Use	39
Zoning for Planned Development in Strategic Locations.....	40
Recommendations.....	40
Properties Recommended for Protection	41
Criteria for Selecting and Prioritizing Properties and Qualities of Properties to Protect.....	43
Priority Properties	44
Maps of Resources	50

Database of Priority Properties for Protection	51
Chapter 3 Tools for Open Space and Natural Resource Protection	52
Introduction	52
Education	52
Use a Variety of Protection Tools	52
Encourage Voluntary Property Owner Actions	53
Voluntary Tools	53
Voluntary Management to Preserve Existing Characteristics	53
Purchase or Donation of Land	54
Conservation Sale	54
Fee Simple Acquisition	54
Outright Donation	55
PA 116	55
Farmland	55
Open Space	56
Commercial Forest Act (CFA)	56
Development Rights Tools: PDR & TDR	56
Development Rights are Basic Property Rights	57
State PDR Programs	58
The TDR Approach	59
Legal Issues	61
Advantages of PDR and TDR	62
Conservation Easements	62
What is a Conservation Easement	62
Why are Conservation Easements an Attractive Option for Land Protection?	63
What Motivates Private Landowners to Donate Conservation Easements?	63
Tax Benefits	64
Heirs May be Able to Keep Large Tracts of Land	64
What is Involved in Creating a Conservation Easement	65
Conservation Easements from Other Parts of Michigan	65
Regulations & Controls	67
Right-to-Farm Laws	67
Disclosure Notices	68
Zoning	68
Agricultural Zoning	69
Exclusive Agricultural Zoning & Quarter/Quarter Zoning	70
Quarter/Quarter Zoning	70
Sliding-Scale Zoning	72
Conditional-Use Zoning	74
Existing Use Zoning	74
Buffer Districts	74
Conservation, Cluster or Open Space Zoning	75
Large-Lot Zoning	78
Overlay Zones	78
Agriculture Security Areas	78
Floodplain Zoning	78
Wetland Zoning	79
Sand Dune Zoning	79

Corridor Overlay Zoning	79
Access Management	80
Signs.....	81
Buffers and Landscaping	81
Design Guidelines for Benzie County.....	83
Introduction	83
Vegetation Management	83
View Protection	86
Water Quality Protection.....	87
Sign Design.....	88
Architectural Design	90
Chapter 4 Benzie County PDR Plan.....	93
Introduction and Purpose.....	93
Statutory Structure & Legal Considerations	95
County Zoning Act & Conservation and Historic Preservation Easement Act.....	95
Agricultural Preservation Fund	97
Michigan Natural Resources Trust Fund (and Land & Water Conservation Funds).....	99
Purpose of Land Preservation Ordinance	100
Key Purposes & Benefits.....	100
Benzie Land Preservation Committee.....	102
Application, Review and Approval Procedures.....	103
Priority PDR Properties	103
Criteria for Prioritizing Agricultural Properties.....	106
Ranking System for Prioritizing Agricultural Land Applications	106
Criteria for Prioritizing Non-Agricultural Properties	112
Scoring System for Prioritizing Non-Agricultural Land Applications	113
Permitted and Prohibited Uses	119
Land Preservation Ordinance	120
Summary of Key Points	122
Chapter 5 Benzie County TDR Plan	123
Introduction	123
Statutory Structure and Legal Considerations.....	123
Other TDR Ordinance Issues.....	124
Purpose of TDR Ordinance	124
Benzie Land Preservation Advisory Committee	125
Application, Review and Approval Procedures	125
Location of Sending and Receiving Zones.....	125
Number of Rights to be Transferred	125
Permitted and Prohibited Uses	126
TDR Ordinance.....	126
Chapter 6 Action Recommendations.....	127
Actions Necessary to Implement this Plan	127
2020 Comprehensive Plan Updates	128
Recreation Plan Updates	129
Smoothing Public Land Boundaries.....	129
Cooperation with State, Federal and Other Land Managers	130
Zoning Ordinance Updates	130

Adopt a County Subdivision Control Ordinance	131
Adoption of a County Capital Improvements Program	132
Voluntary Design Guidelines.....	132
Broad-Based Education Program	133

APPENDICES

- A. Survey Form
- B. Citizen Map Directions
- C. Citizen Photos
- D. Other Agency Criteria
- E. References
- F. Native Plant Lists
- G. Threatened and Endangered Species List
- H. State of Michigan Purchase of Development Rights Program and Natural Resources Trust Fund
- I. Installment Purchase Agreement
- J. Agricultural Conservation Easement
- K. Legislation Enabling Purchase of Development Rights
- L. Transfer of Development Rights
- M. Purchase of Development Rights and Land Preservation Ordinance
- N. Transfer of Development Rights Ordinance

List of Figures

	Page
Figure 1 - Interconnected Open Space is Important for Recreation	11
Figure 2 - No Firearm Discharge Zone.....	14
Figure 3 - Change in Parcel Size Over Time.....	26
Figure 4 – Bundle of Development Rights.....	37
Figure 5 – Benzie County Land Protection Priorities.....	45
Figure 6 - Transfer of Development Rights	60
Figure 7 - Transfer of Development Rights to Protect Wetland Sensitive Environment.....	61
Figure 8 - Quarter/Quarter Zoning.....	71
Figure 9 - Sliding Scale Zoning	73
Figure 10 - Buffer District	75
Figure 11 - Conservation Subdivision Compared to Other Land Division Patterns	77
Figure 12 - Vegetative Buffer	82
Figure 13 - Buffer Strips on Residential Properties	84
Figure 14 - Typical Clearing for New Dwelling	85
Figure 15 - The better approach to home site development that protects scenic character.....	85
Figure 16 - Cleared ridge top spoils view of forested hills	86
Figure 17 - Homes built among woods on ridge top.....	87
Figure 18 - The common approach to sign design that results in confusing and unattractive road corridors	89
Figure 19 - A better approach to sign design that improves driver safety, better protects scenic quality while attracting customers to businesses.....	89
Figure 20 - Points to Consider in Establishing an Attractive Architectural Character	90

List of Photos

	Page
Photo 1 - Orchards Typical of Benzie County	1
Photo 2 - North woods character	2
Photo 3 - M-115 near Benzie County line	3
Photo 4 - One of many scenic views in Benzie County.....	6
Photo 5 - Dune Ecosystem Can Contain Threatened Species.....	10
Photo 6 - Participants fill out a survey at a Public Meeting on Benzie County Open Space and Natural Resources	18
Photo 7 - Participants at a Public Meeting on Benzie County Open Spaces and Natural Resources mark up a map.....	18
Photo 8 - A man-made landmark	22
Photo 9 - A natural landmark	22
Photo 10 - Landmark at Turn in M-22 at West End of Crystal Lake	23
Photo 11 - Waterfront Landmark on Betsie Lake	23
Photo 12 - Vegetated buffer strip on commercial property on M 115.	84
Photo 13 - Facades in City of Frankfort.....	91
Photo 14 - Residential Architectural Style in Benzie County	91
Photo 15 - Village Architecture in Beulah.....	92
Photo 16 - Variety of Functional Architecture Displayed by Drive-In Theater	92

Photos by Benzie County Citizens were taken as part of the Citizen Photo Exercise to identify important landmarks, scenery, natural and cultural features.

List of Tables

	Page
Table 1 List of Key Scenic Resources Identified by Public Meeting Participants.....	20
Table 2 - Benzie County Acres in Large Parcels by Tax Class, 2001	25
Table 3 - Benzie County Large Parcels by Township, 2001.....	27
Table 4 - Acres of Large Blocks of Land in Agriculture, Forestry and Tax Exempt Uses in Benzie County, 2001.....	31
Table 5 – Most Important Lands to Protect	46
Table 6 - Open Space and Natural Resource Protection Options from the Landowner’s Perspective.....	48

List of Maps

	Page
Map 1 - Primary scenic views in Benzie County as indicated by citizens.....	7
Map 2 - Benzie County Ecological Corridors.....	8
Map 3 - Benzie County Steep Slopes	9
Map 4 - Benzie County Trails and Other Resource or Scenic Lands	12
Map 5 – Benzie County Important Scenic Resources: Landmarks	21
Map 6 - Benzie County Large Parcels in Agriculture, Forestry and Conservancy, 2001	28
Map 7 - Proximity of State and Federal Land to Important Scenic Corridors.....	30
Map 8 - Biggest Threats to Open Space and Natural Resources in Benzie County.....	34
Map 9 - Highest Priority Areas to Protect in Benzie County	42